Reminders & Suggestions

- Everyone must speak. Divide and conquer, but remember, you're presenting as a united argument; all pieces need to be cohesive and strong.
- Know your argument! With textual support.
- Make sure your punishment doesn't affect the way others view your support. ie make sure they're thought out.
- Cross examination: anticipate the other side and think past them. If you know the counter-arg. already, it will be easier to rebutt.
